Jaime Masetta is a American indie singer, songwriter, and recording artist. For the majority of her life she dreamt of being on Broadway and going to a college for musical theatre. She remained in that mindset until the end of her Junior year, when she had finally accepted God's merciless call to go into some kind of music ministry. This was very ironic at first because up until the end of her Sophomore year, she barely had a relationship with God.

Finally, she made some friends that "forced" her into the Life Teen band at her parish. This created a whole new adventure for Jaime. At first, playing piano and singing in this band was just another way to perform, but then as she kept doing it, it became so much more.

ABOUT JAIME

Jaime Masetta has been singing ever since she was 2 years old. For the majority of her life, she dreamt of being on Broadway and going to a college for musical theatre. She remained in that mindset until the end of her Junior year, when she had finally accepted God's merciless call to go into some kind of music ministry. This was very ironic at first because up until the end of her Sophomore year, she barely had a relationship with God.

One night, the Life Teen band had played for Eucharistic Adoration at her parish. Jaime was there and sang several songs that night. After the adoration was over, she had several people come up to her and tell her how the Holy Spirit worked through her and that she had so much power with her voice. That sparked a whole new feeling in Jaime, a feeling of excitement and joy. This was a feeling she had hardly ever gotten when talking about musical theatre.

ENDORSEMENT

Over and above her ability to play and sing, Jaime epitomizes harmony. When called upon, Jaime doesn't perform, but she worships — with all of her being she gives back to God from the immeasurable gifts she has been given. When she does so, it catches, and those she leads in worship follow her example to lift not just their voices but also their very hearts to the Lord and God of all. She has been a gift to work with, and I look forward to seeing the great things that Our Father wishes to accomplish through her.

JAIME'S MUSIC

NEW ALBUM - SPRING '21

"2020 made me doubt as I'm sure it did for a lot of us. I doubted God's love for me and even more so, I doubted myself and if I was good enough to be in this career. I felt like part of myself was trying to be someone I wasn't and so I wrote this album to reflect that. As I was writing it, I realized that all God wants is for me to be what He created me to be... authentically myself. I wrote about that realization in the song in the hopes people can see that for themselves. I think the full album "What Love Looks Like" addresses a very real situation we find ourselves in.

All in all, this album has a song for every mood and every worship setting. The single from the album will drop to radio and digital outlets in Mid-March. The full album release is scheduled for early April." — Jaime Masetta, January 2021
